

Chattanooga Boys Choir

Presents the 4th annual

Only Men Aloud!

Men's Chorus Festival
Saturday, September 26

Baylor School · Chattanooga, TN

8:30	Registration Opens	MUSIC-101
9:00-10:10	Welcome, Group Warm-Up, initial repertoire "run-through"	CHOIR ROOM
10:20-10:55	Sectionals Bass/Baritone Tenor	CHOIR ROOM BAND ROOM
11:00-11:30	Lunch
11:35-12:40	Repertoire rehearsal	CHOIR ROOM
12:50-1:30	Masterclass (by voice part) Bass/Baritone Tenor	BAND ROOM CHOIR ROOM
1:40-2:30	Repertoire rehearsal	CHOIR ROOM
2:45-3:20	dress rehearsal in chapel	ALUMNI CHAPEL
3:30	Closing Program in Baylor School in Alumni Chapel Voci Virilli Only Men Aloud! Festival Choir Combined Choirs

Only Men Aloud!* Participating Artists

Vincent Oakes (Festival Director) is Artistic Director of the Chattanooga Boys Choir.

Scott Finch (Guest Clinician) is Director of Choral Activities at Covenant College.

James Harr (Sectional Leader) is Director of Vocal/Choral Music at the McCallie School in Chattanooga.

Darrin Hassevoort (Tenor Master Class) is Director of Choral Activities and Dean of the Humaniteis Department at Chattanooga State Community College and Chorus Director of the Chattanooga Symphony & Orchestra.

Perry Ward (Bass/Baritone Master Class) is Professor of Voice at the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga, where he also is the Director of the UTC Men's Choir.

Merry Lee Wilson (Accompanist) is an accompanist in the choral, vocal, and instrumental studios in the Music Departments of Lee University and UT-Chattanooga.

Voci Virili (Guest Artists) is a Chattanooga-based professional vocal ensemble founded in 2012. Under the direction of Harv Wileman, Voci Virili presents music written for men's voices in multiple genres. The group has been invited to perform on several artist series concerts and the Tennessee conference of the American Choral Directors Association.