

Dreams Deferred Study Guide (Ideal for 3-12th)

- Students will learn an appreciation of African-American literature
- Students will learn an appreciation of US History 1900-1945
- Students will learn varied styles of musical adaptations such as freedom songs, gospel, ragtime, swing jazz, and R&B.
- Students will learn different styles of poetry, prose and dance
- Students will understand the importance of The Harlem Renaissance, and many of the great artists, writers, politicians and political leaders from this influential period.
- Lesson plans can be provided upon request